

Program 2026 (Thursdays, 4.30 pm – 6 pm)

| Date | Presenter and topic |
|-------------|--|
| 15.01.2026 | Kenneth Hugdahl, Bergen University To hear voices that do not exist – on the neurobiology of auditory hallucinations in schizophrenia |
| 19.02.2026 | Lucina Uddin, UCLA Structure and function of the human insula |
| 12.03.2026 | Salvatore Aglioti, La Sapienza Roma Moral thinking, compassion and empathy in healthy and brain-injured individuals |
| 23.04.2026 | Zaira Cattaneo, University of Bergamo The social and emotional functions of the cerebellum |
| 28.05.2026 | Katharina Henke, Universität Bern Unconscious episodic learning and retrieval during wakefulness, sleep, and amnesia |
| 18.06.2026 | Steve Majerus, Université de Liège Working memory: theoretical advancements and implications for neuropsychological assessment |
| 27.08.2026 | Elena Rusconi, University of Trento Gerstmann syndrome |
| 17.09.2026 | Sylvie Belleville, University of Montreal Cognitive training in later life: Evidence, Mechanisms, and Implementation for Clinical Practice |
| 01.10.2026 | Grant L. Iverson, Harvard Medical School Later-in-life brain health in former amateur athletes, professional athletes, and high exposure military veterans |
| 08.10.2026 | George Prigatano, Barrow Neurological Institute, Phoenix AZ Unawareness of cognitive impairment after brain injury |
| 19.11.2026 | Caroline Van Heugten, Maastricht University Neuropsychological interventions: from brain to behavior |
| 10.12.2026 | Simon Baron-Cohen, Cambridge University The prenatal sex steroid theory of autism |

Note: All speakers confirmed, titles are subject to change.

Please send any comments to neuropsychologie-hin@psychologie.ch